

Blister

An ALA Notable Book and PW Best Childrens Book of 2001 winner with a resilient 10-year-old heroine whom readers will love... now in an After Words edition! Alyssa Reeds life is a mess. Her parents cant stop fighting. Her mother wont stop crying. Alyssas father has decided to move the family to a new town, and to move himself to a separate apartment. Nobody gave Alyssa a choice. So Alyssa decides to take control. She renames herself Blister and starts fighting back in her own way. Blister will take on her new school with a new identity, a new wardrobe (stolen from her fathers girlfriend), and a raw, new attitude that nobody can ignore. Not even the cheerleaders. Look out world -- here comes Blister!
