

Childrens Book: If I met a lion (funny bedtime story collection)

What would you do if you ever met a lion in your garden? No, not a kitty cat that meows so sweetly; a lion! In this humorous rhyming story for children aged 3 to 9 years old, a young boy thinks of all the ways he could protect himself, should he find a great big lion around his neighborhood someday. Filled with wonderful illustrations and interesting ideas, this little story will not only spur the imagination; it also gives children the opportunity to consider their fears then discuss them with their parents, which in turn will help them to consider ways in which these fears can be overcome.
