

Strange Reciprocity: Mainstreaming Womens Work in Tepotzlan in the Decade of the New Economy

Women of TepoztlOn were among the first New Spain labor forces to have their continuum of paid and unpaid work processes globally feminized. Focusing on the transformational 1990 to 2000 period, this book moves across time, space, and organizational changes to make explicit multitasking womens experiences of turning to their advantage development policies and practices systematically loaded against them from the outside in and the inside out.
