

Going to School in India

Do you cross a rope bridge to get to school? Does your school meet in the middle of the desert? Does your school bus double as a classroom? If you lived in India, you might answer yes! In this inspiring book, meet students who overcome these and other challenges -- all for the chance to learn. Captivating photographs, engaging text and a contemporary, innovative design open a window to this vibrant culture. With a foreword by Indian actress and education activist Sushmita Sen, Miss Universe 1994.
