

High-Wire Henry

Whats so cute about a little brown dog, anyway? And why does everyone think ties so clever just because he can catch a ball in his mouth? Thats what Henry wants to know!When The Man brings home a new puppy named Buttons, the spunky Siamese is no longer the center of attention. But hell show them. Yow-meowl! Isnt he the best hind-leg walker on four feet?So Henry climbs a tree, stretches his whiskers for balance, and starts to tightrope-walk along a branch. But nobody is impressed -- until Buttons gets himself into a fix and only an aerial artist like Henry can save him.Mary Calhouns gently humorous story and Erick Ingrahams breathtaking illustrations combine in a rollicking picture-book adventure that will delight the feline daredevils countless fans.
