

If the Shoe Fits

Rigo doesn't like being the youngest brother. He always has to wear his big brother's hand-me-downs. Plus, his brothers—Hector, Manuel, and Carlos—always seem to lose buttons, rip holes, and wear the clothes out before they get to Rigo! But Rigo's luck changes on his birthday when his mom gives him a pair of shoes. He loves them for their shine and style, but most of all he loves them because they are brand-new. After he outgrows the shoes, and trades them to his uncle for old Mexican centavos, Rigo learns that some hand-me-downs are better than brand-new.
