

Tea for Honey

Honey is a bear who has everything a bear could ever want: a warm house to live in, plenty of berries to keep her tummy full, and all the sweet honey she could possibly eat. So why is Honey the grizzly bear so miserable? All this lovable bear wants is to have a friend, but when you're a huge bear, that is not so easy. All the animals in the forest are afraid of her sharp teeth and giant claws. Every morning when Honey says her prayers, she asks God to give her one special friend with whom to share her time. With persistent prayer and Honey's warm and loving heart, the animals in Green Pine Woods learn a valuable lesson about the deceptiveness of appearances.
