

A Practical Directory for Young Christian Females : Being a Series of Letters from a Brother to a Younger Sister (Illustrated)

This book is an illustrated version of the original A Practical Directory for Young Christian Females by Harvey Newcomb. Christ says, the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water, springing up into everlasting life. When these words were uttered, our Lord was sitting upon a deep well, in conversation with the woman of Samaria. As his custom was, he drew instruction from the objects around him. He directed her attention away from the water which can only quench animal thirst, to that living water which refreshes the soul. But she, not understanding him, wished to know how he could obtain living water from a deep well, without anything to draw with. In order to show the superiority of the water of life, he told her that those who drank it should have it in them, constantly springing up of itself, as if the waters of the well should rise up and overflow, without being drawn.
