

Working at the Ballpark: The Fascinating Lives of Baseball People - from Peanut Vendors and Broadcasters to Players and Managers

What if Studs Terkel wrote a book with Bill James? Youd have a book on what its really like to make a living in the world of baseball. For everyone who ever dreamed of making their love of baseball into their vocation, Working at the Ballpark will provide a view at their lives that might have been, with interviews with more than 50 people who make a living in major league baseball. Each is asked the same questions: What is your job? How did you get into this line of work? What does this job mean to you? From peanut vendors and equipment managers to general managers and star players, from John Guilfooy, who sells sausages at Fenway, to Chris Hanson, who plays Bernie Brewer in Milwaukee, to Omar Vizquel, who anchors the infield at AT&T Park, this is an insiders perspective on the enormous scope of the game.
